

the first edition

For and About Employees of the K mart Home Office

289

Photos, Virginia Burns

Remember these guys?

Jeffrey and Andrew Maurer, fraternal twins, 4½ years old, representing United Foundation for 1983. Both have cerebral palsy and attend the Detroit Institute for Children, a therapeutic center for children without limbs, muscle control and other motor difficulties.

The boys' progress is a prime example of how generous people have been in the past and hopefully in the future. Thank you for your contributions.